DYSPEPSIA.
IS that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.
Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,
The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach,
Expel foul gases,
Allay Irritation,
Assist Digestion,
and, at the same time
Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.
"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—WM. PIANOS.
GAINED FIRST PREMIUM FOR GREATEST merit at the New Orleans Cotton Centennial and WORLE'S Exposition for refined and wonderful power of tone, elegance of design, and superb finish. Only piano endorsed by United States commissioners, from each of the States. Cases finest carved, rosewood finish—finest imported double repeating action—three strings throughout of best patent steel wire—keys best ivory. Our new patent steel tuning device, instead of wood, is the greatest invention ever made in pianos. It consists of stationary STEEL tuning pins that are set in a mold and molten STEEL is run round the pins keeping them solidly in place. A thimble or shell of tin is made to exactly fit the stationary pin revolving therein; thus the strings wind round the pins. After the strings are properly stretched the piano can never get out of tune, the rest plank being of STEEL not affected by extremes of climate. This will be appreciated by all musicians in city or country. It will stand twenty years without tuning and is good for 100. No other piano has this improvement.
Great strength and durability is another advantage. In other pianos holes are bored in wooden boards and tuning pins inserted. The pins turn round in this board and cannot stand permanently in tune, and it often cracks, splits, drys out, becoming utterly, totally and entirely worthless as a musical instrument. Our STEEL tuning device is in no way affected by such casualities, and the sounding board is so constructed that our pianos can never become thin or metallic in tone. They are always in tune and the expense of tuning is saved. This patent alone is worth millions and makes our piano the greatest in the world. Prices are no higher than other pianos. Buying direct from us, the largest manufacturers, you save $100 or $200—dealers' profits. Don't mind the ominous growlings of dealers and agents, who see their chances of selling a poor piano at a big profit of $200—slipping away—pity them.
We guarantee our pianos ten years. 200 styles. We have put our prices at lowest bed-rock for Cash.
A $600 Piano for $259.50; a $900 Piano for $297.50; a $1200 Piano for $375.50; a $1500 Piano for $475.50.
Upright Cabinet Grands, with stool and rubber cover shipped on board cars at S. F., to any part of the United States, Canada or Mexico. Our terms are cash with order. If not as represented money returned. We occasionally have good second-hand pianos, made over at $100 to $300, which we take in part payment for our own. Write or call for catalogue, free.

QUEBEC IN WINTER.

How Its Inhabitants Enjoy Themselves During the Cold Season.

The out-door life of Quebec surprises a stranger from a more Southern climate. Having in mind the furious tempests of a Canadian winter, when very often neither man nor beast is safe out-doors, he fears that suffering or even death is frequently met here when one leaves the house. And certainly nature looks into Quebec with uncommon freedom; the entire dome of the sky, rising from a vast expanse of waters, plains and mountains, is visible from many parts of the town; so that when the sun shines in this exceptionally clear Northern air he beams on every thing, in a great rustic effusion rare in a city sun; you almost take the firing of the mid-day gun for his universal guffaw, rolling through the cloudless sky. Then when a gale swoops down it bears in upon you familiarly, even with a terrible eagerness and ferocity; and I fancy, too that the moon and stars hover close about Quebec, for when I go out on a clear night they stare with large-eyed wonder—as well they may, at a near view of such a creature! But the Canadian winter, excepting during a tempest, is a season full of comforts and enjoyments; for business sleeps, the Lower Town seems empty, and life turns either to frolicsome out-door sports—for which the good air furnishes abundant vigor—or to warm and intimate social pleasures. Even if the thermometer be as low as ten degrees below zero, you will often find the children out-doors—cherubic bundles of fur and wool wallowing in the snow as if it were hay, the babies in their little sleds, and people out snow-shoeing, skating in the rink, or driving in their cozy "carioles;" the horses may be silvered over with frost, and your eyelashes laden with globules of ice, or now and then you may have to rub your nose with snow to warm it after freezing; but, as a rule, every body is very comfortable in furs, with the help of moderate exercise. This French people in America seem to have overcome the dependence of their blood on a warm, sunny climate; they walk the streets in any weather with a comfortable, moderate, often perhaps a mincing gait, while their English friends stride over the snow with a martial earnestness. The poor hackmen have the hardest experience; in fur caps and long buffalo coats with collars coming up to the top of their heads, they look like bears masquerading as men; they tighten the National red sash about their waists, stamp their feet, swing their arms and keep up a continual scuffling and joking to shorten the tedium of their long hours; and I should not omit to add that their rubicund noses promise well to defy the frost. In braving the gloom and ferocity of a winter storm the city has a certain savage as well as pathetic aspect; a north-east gale comes up the St. Lawrence in bounding gusts, and scaling the cliffs of Cape Diamond, throws the snow back defiantly into the sky; and the battlements shake out hoary manes from their crests. But the human elements of the scene are more timid; the little houses crouching down into the snow-drifts look like tattered toques with tassels of white smoke floating out on the wind: mercy on any poor soul that can not escape the snow-laden gusts, cutting as a sand-blast! with bowed heads, and occasional turning about to catch a breath, even the well-clad hurry on, and like silent phantoms soon flit out of sight into the white obscurity. When the brooding gloom settles over the city at twilight the bugle throws its cheery notes into the arctic silence of the glacis; as you struggle along the ramparts the Angelus rings from over the monastery wall, while the cannon point to the night approaching over the mountain-tops.—C. H. Farnham, in Harper's Magazine.

DEVOTED AND HELPFUL.

Story of a Good Wife Who Believes in Assisting Her Husband.

It is both amusing and pathetic to see how devoted some wives are to their husbands. It would bring tears to the eyes of the hardest-hearted wretch in Newark. The other day a lady residing on Halsey street trotted across the way to call upon a neighbor. She found her married friend hard at work. Yes, very hard at work indeed, so hard, in fact, that she didn't even notice the lady's entrance at first, but finally looked up from her toil and, with a brow wrinkled with care, exchanged the morning salutations with her visitor.

But she didn't leave off working. O, no, but excused herself, saying: "I do think I ought to be of some help to my husband. It tires me to work, but then you know, my dear, I have the delightful consciousness of having done my part."

"And what do you think she was doing?" queried the lady who had seen it all of a friend a short time after. "Why, she was rinsing out a little tidy and a handkerchief in a wash-bowl."

This reminds the observer of the story, which is by no means a new one, but serves admirably to bring out the point, of a mother who said to a caller when the conversation drifted upon the subject of her buxom young daughter just graduated from the high school:

"Yes, my Jennie is such a help to me and so thoughtful. While I'm doing a big washing of a Monday she sits in the parlor and plays 'Who Will Care for Mother Now?' on the piano."—Newark Journal.

A TOURIST IN JUDEA.

Tent Life in Palestine—A Happy Existence When It Doesn't Rain.

Jenin is about three days' ride from Jerusalem. The first day takes one up over Scopus, from whence is obtained the best far off view of the Holy City, past Gibeah, where David permitted the murder of Saul's seven sons; past Ramah, where Rachel mourned for her children; past the bethel of Jacob and past the somber rock country of Judea, a country for the weird pencil of a Dore; to Sinjil, where the first night is gladly spent after such a day's battling with the aggravating stony paths. A land flowing with milk and honey Palestine may have been, but as most tourists see barren Judea first it would seem as if the milk must have become curdled and petrified into these present, very present rocks. Honey, too; and man thinks indignantly of that imitation stuff to which they are now reduced and which they have the assurance to proffer here in this supposed honeyed land.

After this insult added to the already potent injury of the stones and rocks, tired mortal hails his tent with joy, hails even those iron structures on which we are spending a third of our time, and the bedding of which is not so hard as a pine board, neither is it cider down by a long shot. Yet you cling to that bedding with strong desire as, at 5 or 6 in the morning as may be, the dragoman comes to call you. Coffee is served in a half hour, the men are already beginning the uncording of your tent, so you must arise whether or no. In another half hour all are supposed to be ready to mount and be off, thus taking advantage of the cool and delicious early day. A rest of a couple of hours is made for luncheon (which has been brought on donkey back), and, for a lounge for you, and, if the rood may be applied, for the horses also. Arriving at the day's journey's end, one is highly gratified to find everything set up as marvelously as it disappeared while taking his morning coffee. Dinner is served at half past 6 and the evening is passed in conversation, cards, or in writing up journal, for early to rise means early to bed. Some one has said that this combination means healthy, wealthy and wise, but I don't believe it—except for Palestine.

For tent life is a happy one—when it doesn't rain. Even if it do, your canvas house is, it is to be hoped, of double thickness and well corded down by Arabs who have been doing just that same thing all their lives. Against dampness, sometimes a board flooring is laid, but large rugs are always spread upon which the bed and washstand are always set up, and which makes a pretty harmony with the inner canvas covering which has been gayly adorned in a sort of Oriental patchwork, the effort of Cairene art ideas, and presents an inviting appearance—cool by day and warm by night—something like the Irishman's whisky, cold in summer and hot in winter. With your chair in the doorway, or reclining by the adjustable window, you settle down to Baedeker or Stanley or Hepworth Dixon, feeling quite sure that the tent arrangement is the most sensible mode of living yet invented—for Palestine. Particularly is this true if, at this juncture, Hassan makes his appearance with a cup of tea, which he always has ready on your coming into camp.—Palestine Cor. Cleveland Leader.

Russia in Central Asia.

Russia not only intends to absorb all the Central Asian states, but to make them, if possible, profitable holdings. A huge cotton plantation has been established near Merv and is said to give excellent promise. Mills are also to be erected for turning the cotton into cloth for the Persian market, where the Russians will have, by reason of proximity and ease of access, enormous advantage over all competitors. A market has been found in Persia for Russian petroleum, and a dozen caravans of 500 camels each are now constantly employed in transporting it thither from Baku. These and other new fields of enterprise Russia has a monopoly of and will keep it. Permission to start another cotton field near Merv has just been refused to an American company, and foreigners of all nations are given to understand that there is no opening for them in that part of the world. It may be that the Tartar wastes can be rehabilitated in the productiveness and wealth that were once theirs. If so, the Russian conquerers and civilizers will deserve another Firdusi and a new Shah Nameh.—New York Tribune.

Two Ingenious Instruments.

The melograph and melotrope are two little instruments invented by an ingenious carpenter named Jules Charpentier, which, it is claimed, will enable a composer to record permanently by electricity music as it is played on the pianoforte. This is a great boon for players who compose with their fingers and will enable them to deluge the public with trashy improvisations. However, it has an art side as well, since it will enable composers of ability to escape the drudgery of writing. The melograph records the music upon a sheet of paper, and this sheet passed through the melotrope produces each note and expression. This was demonstrated most successfully by Saint-Saens.—Boston Transcript.

A Millionaire's Stone Bruise Remedy.

"Hello, bub! What's the matter with your foot?" asked Uncle Rufus Hatch of a barefooted boy who was limping along Kingsbridge road the other day.

"Stone bruise."

"Stone bruise, eh? I've had many of 'em when I used to go barefoot. What do you put on it?"

"Nothin'."

"You want to get five cents' worth of gum camphor and a quarter of a pound of lard. Dissolve them together and tie up your foot in it. Here's a quarter."

"Thank'ee, sir."—New York Sun.

An Improved Cement.

M. Vallin, a French chemist, has invented an improved kind of cement, possessing durability and the cold appearance of marble, so that a wall set with it not only becomes impermeable to moisture, but can be polished and made beautiful.—Chicago Herald.

Of the 1,650,000 people in Kansas 173,000 are foreign born; 52,000 are from Germany, 20,000 are from Ireland, 24,000 from England. Of the native born inhabitants 184,000 are from Illinois.

A Serviceable Scrap Book.

A correspondent of an "educational" newspaper believes he has found a good thing in the way of a serviceable scrap book. Instead of leaves on which to paste the scraps, it has pockets or envelopes, into which he drops his cuttings from newspapers or magazines. By this simple method he is saved the time and trouble of pasting. These cuttings are classified according to subjects; all the scraps on a given subject, or class of subjects, are put into the same envelope. The title of the subject is written on the envelope containing it, and the name is also entered in the index in front of the book. When information is wanted upon any subject, all the scraps will be found in one place, and can be easily removed, consulted and replaced at pleasure.

Besides printed scraps, notes, one's own thoughts reduced to writing, lectures or addresses can thus be filed, and a record of the time and place of delivery written on the outside of the envelope. Busy, practical men, literary men, teachers or clergymen can in this way keep their scraps of information in readiness for future consultation. An ingenious student of natural history has perhaps an improvement upon this method. Instead of a scrap book with pockets or envelopes, he utilizes a row of pasteboard boxes made to resemble books, upon the backs of which the contents, "Biography," "Natural History," etc., are inscribed. Both of the foregoing methods of scrap keeping have been tested and found practically useful, and by either of them an article, when useless or finally disposed of, can be withdrawn and destroyed.—Chambers' Journal.

He Didn't Care to "Progic."

The first railroad that penetrates a backwoods community in the south calls the negroes for miles to shake hands, as they term it, "wid de ingine." The old darkey, who is a great respecter of persons and things, does not at first regard the locomotive as a machine, but looks upon it as a monstrous creature of life.

"Wall, sah, I neber 'spected ter see sich er sight ez dis," said an old negro who had cautiously approached a railroad engine, and who stood watching the engineer rub the brass cylinders.

"Why so, old man?" the engineer asked.

"Caze, sah, I thought de Lawd gwine sho'ly put out my light 'fo' dis day come ter pass. Mussyful hebens, dat thing is monst'us! Jes' lissun at him, how he chuggin' hisse'f. Bet he wouldn' git outen de way fur nobody. Bet you ef I wuster meet 'im in de road I'd step erside mighty soon. Whar he raised, mister?"

"New Hampshire."

"Wall, I better b'lebe you. Look at de man climbin' right up in de thing! Greshes erlive!" he exclaimed, as the engine began to puff, "ef he ain't dun gone!"

"How would you like to ride on it?" some one asked.

The old negro, regarding his questioner with a look of contempt, replied:

"I mout er lost a good deal o' sense in my time, but I ain't lost it all. W'en I wuz er young man I could ride anything dat come erlaung, but now dat I'se old I ain't gwine progic, sah; I jes' nachully ain't gwine progic."—Arkansaw Traveler

Praying for Fine Weather.

In those countries where, unlike California, they have to pray for fine weather, it needs sometimes a great deal of faith to stick to the church. In Scotland, for instance, one of the few really religious countries in the world, a large proportion of the minister's duty is to pray for fine weather. There was a quiet Scotch village where the farmers were all in the dumps. The Scotch mist kept coming down all the time, and it alternated with a frequent very heavy storm. The minister had prayed every Sabbath for fine weather without avail for four weeks. He met an old farmer one day.

"John," he said, "this fearfu' weather's nathing but a judgment o' God on this parish. Ye'r sich a wicked lot that the Lord's jist gaun to punish ye."

"'Deed, minister, we dinna tak' the same view of it. We think that there's somethin' the matter wi' the minister. He hasna got sufficient influence up there; an' I'm tellin' ye, minister, if ye dinna succeed wi' your prayer next Sabbath we'll be maist unfortunately compelled to discharge ye an' ca' somebody else."—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Russo-German Boundary Line.

There is a very strong contrast between the appearance of things on the two sides of the boundary between Germany and Russia. On the German side the landscape is dotted with beautiful, cozy homes, with every evidence of prosperity and thrift, with well cultivated fields, vine-clad stables, neat looking kine, hedges tastefully trimmed and patches of flowers, while in the towns and villages were handsome railway stations, tempting cafes, large factories, handsome schoolhouses, and every symbol of a higher civilization and prosperity. On the east side of the line there are none of these, and the change takes place instantly. Thrift and comfort are replaced by distress and degradation. The fields are uncultivated, except in patches here and there—spots where it was the easiest to plow—the cattle are lean and hungry, the homes of the people are log or mud huts, and there is not a schoolhouse to be seen from the boundary line to the capital.—William Elroy Curtis in Chicago News.

Bicycles and Tricycles.

The speed attained by the bicycles and tricycles on a good road is superior to that attained by a fast trotter for the same distance, and as a speedy mode of conveyance is only surpassed by a few of the fastest steamships and the locomotive. Two riders recently rode a tricycle 20 miles 715 yards in one hour and rode 25 miles in 73 minutes 42.8 seconds, or at an average rate of 20.35 miles per hour. The mechanical construction of a bicycle is well worth study. The requisite amount of strength is probably obtained with a smaller proportion of weight than in any other machine, and considering the trying nature of the strains, a fair amount of durability and immunity from breakdowns is obtained. The price, however, per pound (about $3) of the best and lightest machines is considerably in excess of that of almost any other machinery.—Railroad Gazette.

SONOMA AND THE DEPOT SITE.

Sonoma has been in a ferment the past week regarding the establishment of the depot of the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad for the accommodation of the patrons of the road in this city and its environments. Several months ago a committee of citizens waited upon Timothy Hopkins, one of the principal directors of the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad, for the purpose of ascertaining where the Sonoma depot of that railroad was to be located. Upon the assurances of that gentleman that "the way things now look the depot will be erected on the Clarke place, one and a quarter miles west of Sonoma," the people of this city subscribed several thousand dollars toward the construction of an iron bridge across Sonoma Creek, the contract for which has been let, and also purchased the right of way for a road leading to the bridge in order to make the depot as accessible to this city as possible. Now comes the report, and we understand it has been verified, that the new town of Verano is endeavoring to secure the depot which had been partially promised the people of this city. Now, the residents of Sonoma do not object to Verano having a depot, but they do protest against their city being deprived of a depot through misrepresentations.

In speaking of Mr. Hopkins' promise we say partial, because that gentleman's language, which we quote above, has nothing of the positive about it. He did not state out and out in so many plain words that the depot would be located on the Clarke place, but his language gave the committee to understand that certain contingencies might arise which would cause the company to alter its plans. At least any man of ordinary intelligence would so construe Mr. Hopkins' language. On the strength of this promise, such as it was, our people were willing to take the chances of the depot being located on the Clarke place, and went ahead with their bridge and road project.

This explanation is made because this paper does not desire to misrepresent the railroad people in this matter and to show that really there was no positive promise given. But, however that may be, we cannot see how the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad directors can conscientiously refuse to build a depot within a reasonable distance of this city. Sonoma is the center of population of this valley, and contains more inhabitants and business houses than all the rest of the country combined through which this railroad runs until it reaches Santa Rosa. Sonoma, unlike a number of projected towns in this valley, is not in an embryo state. This city is an established fact and it can safely be asserted that the freight and passenger traffic of Sonoma will equal that of all the other stations combined from Napa Junction to Santa Rosa for some years yet to come. The Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad people know this, and they know, too, as common carriers what the law requires of them. They cannot discriminate against populous communities without the interference of the Railroad Commission of this State. Therefore, we see no reason why Sonoma should not have a depot. But just where that depot is to be located is another matter. The railroad people will be the judges of that, and will build it where they please. If our people will but take this matter in hand and interview the directors they may succeed in having the depot located where they want it.

It has been represented to the directors that Sonoma is opposed to the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad, that her people are indifferent as to where they run their road or establish their depots. This is a wilful misrepresentation. The people of Sonoma have never been opposed to any railroad project if we omit the scheme engineered by the rascally Orr. It is true there are a few chronics in this town who are opposed to all railroads, as there is in every community, and who represent nobody but themselves. But ought the entire population be made to suffer for the short-sightedness of the few? We say no. The only fault of Sonoma and her people is they have no leader and are slow to act.

The time has now arrived for action. A combined effort must be made by the citizens of Sonoma to secure a depot for this city and have it located where it will prove an accommodation for the greater number of patrons of the road. Let petty differences, spites and jealousies be cast aside. Let all pull together for the town. Close up the breach between the different local factions and let all work for the common weal. Let some demonstration be made to convince the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad directors that Sonoma is not so bad as she has been pictured by the enemies of the town and that its people are not now nor never have been opposed to railroads, and our word for it we will receive fair treatment at their hands. If we do this and should even fail we at least will have the satisfaction of knowing that we have not lost our rights without an effort to maintain them.

THE Twenty-third Industrial Exposition of the Mechanics' Institute will open in San Francisco, August 7th, and closes September 15th. General Manager Stout writes us that all exhibits will be transported free by the railroads traversing Sonoma county. A movement to have this county represented by a grand display of her natural products is already on foot, and should Sonoma Valley exhibit with the county this year, it cannot fail of success. Last year the valley alone carried off the first premium of $1000 for the best general display as against all the other counties, her own included, and, having won the distinction of being the most prolific section of California, is now willing to rest on her laurels for a time at least and will not make an independent exhibit this year.

CONSTABLE MORRIS LADD of San Jose is dying from glanders. Ladd was treating a diseased animal and was inoculated in the finger on which there was a slight scratch. For sixteen days he has been confined to his bed, and for several days he has been delirious. Abscesses have formed on his hands, feet and face, and are now extending over his body. The finger looks as if it were mortified. One eye is closed by swelling, and perspiration is profuse and very offensive. He is in a horrible condition.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, March 30, 1888.

Senator Blair of New Hampshire, the author of the Educational bill has just introduced another measure over which the mere question of reference caused quite a spirited debate. It provides that in appointments to civil service positions the wounded and disabled ex-Confederate soldiers shall be given preference over other Confederates. Speeches were made by Senators Platt, Hale, Berry, Blair, Hoar, Riddleberger, Hampton, George, Manderson, Daniel and Hawley. The Southern Senators, while expressing the kindliest feelings for the generosity and philanthropy which had prompted the introduction of the bill, disclaimed all desire on the part of ex-Confederates for the passage of any such exceptional measure, but thought that as a matter of courtesy and uniformity of practice, the bill should be referred to its appropriate committee. The Northern Senators were of one accord in condemning the measure as unwise and ill-considered. Senator Blair said he had introduced his bill in entire good faith. He understood that in the one state of North Carolina, there were to-day 20,000 ex-soldiers of the Confederacy who had lost limbs in the service, and that most of them were in poor circumstances. It seemed to him that if the Government under this or any other Administration gave appointments to men who had been disloyal to the Union, preference should be given to those who were disabled, (other things being equal).

The widow of Gen. Hancock will be presented with a handsome brown stone and brick house in this city. Some friends of the late General have been actively engaged in trying to raise sufficient money for its purchase, and have met with success. The lady will take possession of the house next week.

The dozen or more authors who have been visiting Washington during the week and giving public readings from their works for the benefit of the Copyright League, were entertained at the White House on Monday evening after the readings. The old Mansion was in gala dress for the occasion and supper was served about midnight. The authors want an International Copyright law, you know, and a bill to that end has just been reported to the Senate.

Congressman Crain, of Texas, is very hopeful in regard to his Constitutional amendment changing Inauguration day. Said he, "The weather of the past two weeks is sufficient to warrant a change, and I believe the next President will be inaugurated on the 30th of April." Mr. Crain will make an effort to have this question considered on the 2nd proximo. There is a pronounced feeling in the House in favor of changing Inauguration Day, and there is but little doubt that the change will be made.

Belva Lockwood, looking in excellent health and spirits, occupied the platform of Grand Army Hall and spoke for an hour and a half to an audience of 150 people a few evening's ago. Her alleged subject was "Washington Social and Political Life" but she did not allow herself to be trammeled by it and branched off in different directions. Speaking of politics she said that as Blaine had resigned and Geo. W. Childs and Robert Lincoln and others, that when Cleveland resigned, she also would publicly tender her resignation. She believed the coming man would be a woman. All she asked for the District of Columbia at present was that the women be allowed to vote on licensing the saloons. The greatest act of President Cleveland's life she thought was that of taking unto himself Frances Folsom for a wife.

Simmons Liver Regulator

Is what the name indicates a "Regulator" of that most important organ, the Liver. Is your Liver out of order? Then is your whole system deranged, the breath offensive, you have headache, feel languid, dispirited, and nervous, no appetite, sleep is troubled and unrefreshing. Simmons Liver Regulator restores the healthy action of the Liver.

Is Consumption Incurable.

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and am able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. OPEN LETTERS.

I was greatly troubled with my liver and kidneys and pains in the back, and found no relief till I began taking Joy's Sarsaparilla. It has helped me wonderfully. I gratefully recommend it to all those afflicted as I have been.

MRS. LOMBARD, Santa Clara, Cal.

For a long time I was troubled with liver complaint. I tried many liver and kidneys cures without effect. My attention was finally called to Joy's vegetable Sarsaparilla, as being not only a splendid blood purifier, but an infallible liver and kidney remedy. I took a course of it and it effected a complete cure.

JAMES LICK, 708 Montgomery st., San Francisco, Cal.

For several years I suffered from dyspepsia and kidney complaint, so severe at times that I could not attend to my work. My appetite became poor, and I was much emaciated. Joy's vegetable Sarsaparilla and Kidney cure completely restored my health.

JOHN MCLELLAN, Redding, Cal.

I suffered for years acutely from dyspepsia, and became greatly reduced and decpndent. Satisfied at last my trouble was of a scrofulous nature, I began taking Joy's Sarsaparilla, and believe it saved my life. My appetite and digestion are now good, and I feel like a new man.

JAMES WELLS, Oakdale, Cal.

In 1882 I took a severe cold in my head that resulted in chronic catarrh of the most objectionable kind. I tried doctors and many so-called specifics, but found no relief till I commenced taking Joy's vegetable Sarsaparilla. After two bottles I noticed improvement, and the sixth destroyed all traces of the disease. C. W. LEONARD, Colusa, Cal.

I suffered for years from catarrh till it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. No remedies gave me relief till I commenced using Joy's Sarsaparilla. I began taking it last Spring, and am now entirely free from that disgusting disease.

LIZZIE A. HALL, Mojave, Cal.

I had a dangerous cough. Nothing relieved it till I commenced taking Joy's vegetable Sarsaparilla. It began to grow milder and more disconnected, and one morning about two weeks afterwards it suddenly occurred to me that I had not coughed for several days, and I am now entirely without it.

DUANE W. FIELD, 501 Post st., San Feancisco, Cal.

We have over 1,000 more such letters, but no room for them here.

Ask for Joy's Sarsaparilla.

Unlike most so-called blood purifiers, it does not employ mercurials or other dangerous minerals, but is a compound or powerful extracts and concentrated juices of vegetable alteratives indigenous to California. It is a fortunate combination of the very finest blood purifier, liver and kidney remedy and stomach regulator in existence.

Prepared only by the Edwin W. Joy Company, San Francisco, Cal. Price, $1 per bottle; six for $5. For sale by all druggists.

SMALLEST, CHEAPEST, EASIEST TO TAKE.

Beware of Imitations, containing Poisonous Minerals. Always ask for Dr. Pierce's Pellets, which are little Sugar-coated Pills, or Anti-bilious Granules.

Being Purely Vegetable, Dr. Pierce's Pellets operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. They are a gentle laxative, or an active purgative, according to size of dose.

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, for 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Catarrh in the Head which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak and watery; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a "nasal twang"; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

A complete Treatise on Catarrh, giving valuable hints as to clothing, diet, and other matters of importance, will be mailed, postpaid to any address, on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp. Address,

Hon. Robt. Howe was in San Francisco several days this week attending the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, as the representative for Sonoma county.

A number of our property-owners, notably Chas. McHarvey, are fighting the cottony cushion scale and are sawing off the limbs of trees close to their trunks which have been attacked by this insect pest. This is a wise move, as it will not only save the trees, but will also prevent the spread of this most destructive of bugs.

Easter Sunday was very appropriately observed in all the churches in this city. The decorations were very beautiful, and large congregations were in attendance, the Catholic Church being so crowded that many were compelled to stand throughout the long services. In the Methodist and Congregational churches Easter concerts were held in the evening.

It is really surprising how people will continue to suffer month after month and year after year from gravel, neuralgia, rheumatism and sick headache, when the cause of these terrible diseases is often removed at once by a course of that wonderful remedy, Frese's Hamburg Tea. Its use is always beneficial to old and young, and for children it is the most popular medicine known.

The Republicans will hold a primary election in this county on Saturday, April 21st, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention which meets in Santa Rosa, April 25th, Sonoma is entitled to three delegates. The business to be transacted by the convention will be the selection of thirteen delegates to the State Convention and the election of a County Central Committee.

Trout fishing is all the rage now, the close season having expired last Sunday. Sonoma creek and all the small streams in the valley are well supplied with water and there is excellent sport ahead for anglers. Some fine strings have been caught this week in Fowler, Hooker, Agua Caliente, Nathanson and Sonoma creeks, although there is yet too much water in the latter stream for good fishing. It will be at its best in about a week or two.

FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY.

Two Men Hurled to the Ground and are Picked up Unconscious.

On Saturday afternoon last about six o'clock a frightful runaway took place on the north side of the Plaza, which may deprive one man of his life while another was knocked senseless and badly bruised about the head and body. The team, which was attached to a spring wagon was tied in front of Schocken's store. Three men, W. D. Queen, John Zimmerman and Thos. Flynn untied the horses and mounted the seat of the wagon and before the driver could secure a good hold on the lines the team, a spirited one, sprang forward and dashed madly up Spain street, and the three men either jumped or were thrown from the wagon before the animals had run a block. W. D. Queen fell in front of the Toscano Hotel and striking upon his head was rendered unconscious. Upon being picked up blood gushed from his ears, nose and mouth in torrents and he was supposed to be fatally injured. The injured man was carried into the yard of the Toscano Hotel and laid upon a mattrass and a physician immediately summoned. An examination by the doctor developed the fact that no bones were broken and that the unfortunate man's injuries were about the head, and as he vomited large quantities of blood there was a possibility of a serious internal injury. Later on Mr. Queen was removed to Odd Fellows' Hall building, and kindly cared for by the fraternity, he being a member in good standing of that order. For 48 hours the injured man remained in a state of unconsciousness but on Tuesday last he rallied and was able to recognize his friends, and at latest accounts he is much improved and his chances for recovery are fair.

Tommy Flynn was thrown out near Weyl's corner, and also rendered unconscious. He, too, was picked up, and carried to the sidewalk but soon revived. He luckily escaped with a few minor bruises and abrasions. Zimmerman was more fortunate than either, and was not injured in the least, he having jumped off the wagon as the horses started.

City Trustees Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Sonoma City was held at the City Pavilion on Wednesday evening April 4, 1888 at 7:30 o'clock.

Present, Trustees Manuel, McHarvey, Wegner and Deputy Clerk Poppe. Trustee McHarvey presided.

The minutes of the previous regular meeting were read and approved.

Trustee Manuel from the street Committee reported that with the assistance of Surveyor Brewster, the street in Mr. Aguillon's vineyard, running parallel to Spain street, had been located to the satisfaction of all parties concerned.

The following bills were presented, referred to the proper committees, audited and ordered paid: G. W. Sparks, salary and fees, $22.50; J. McDonnell Jr., salary, $10.00; J. Minoggio, labor, $28,40; G. S. Harris, hauling, $12.00. Total, $72.90.

The annual reports of the Clerk, Treasurer and Marshal were received and referred to the Finance Committee.

F. Breitenbach declined to serve as Judge at the coming municipal election, and G. W. McIntyre was thereupon appointed in his stead.

Adjourned.

The Election Monday.

So far only seven candidates have materialized for the various offices to be filled by the voters of this city at the election next Monday. These are Robt. Poppe for Trustee, Ed. Gillan and G. W. Sparks for Marshal, Judge Breitenbach and H. C. Lutgens for Clerk, and Martin Muldry and F. Duhring for Treasurer. A number of parties are mentioned in connection with the Trusteeship, but in the absence of any positive announcement from the gentlemen themselves we refrain from mentioning names. Two or three tickets, however, are being make up and by Monday it will be known positively "who's who"—or, in other words, who are candidates for City Trustees and who are not.

The Trusteeship.

Monday two City Trustees are to be elected to serve the people of this city for the next four years. What this town requires is men of progressive ideas for these positions. The time has now arrived when it will not do to elect obstructionists and narrow-minded men to manage the affairs of our city. What is wanted are men of broad and liberal ideas to suggest and carry out measures for the best interests of the community as a whole. If the voters of Sonoma select such men as Trustees next Monday they will have done their duty and will have done it well.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Monday, April 2d.

The Board of Supervisors met in monthly session at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, Supervisors Allen, Davis, Coulter and Connolly being present, Chairman John O'Hara presiding.

The morning session was consumed in examining the reports of road overseers.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Board reconvened after the noon recess with a full attendance.

The following Road Overseers' reports were accepted and their bills ordered paid: Victor Durand, Salt Point, $569.80; D. W. Long, Vallejo, $244.56; A. R. Bell, Healdsburg, $317.25; Tim Kelly, Knights valley, $558; W. F. Harris, Washington, $242.80; E. F. O'Leary, Analy, $859.60; Gallant Rains, Petaluma, $435.10; C. Y. Caldwell, Santa Rosa, $158.50; A. J. Packwood, Russian River, $431.59; C. E. Roseburg, Cloverdale, $890.80; William Garrison, Redwood, $1.25; Thos. Furlong, Bodega, $615.65.

In the matter of the construction of the Cloverdale and Dutcher creek road, the cost of which it having appeared would be in excess of the amount stated in a former resolution of the Board, Mr. Davis moved that the Road Commissioner of the district be instructed to pass upon the bills of the Road Overseer of said district contracted in the construction of said road.

At 5 P. M. the Board adjourned until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Tuesday, April 3d.

The Board reconvened at 9 o'clock A. M. Tuesday with a full attendance, O'Hara presiding.

In the matter of the Sonoma avenue extension, certain citizens having petitioned the Board to make a change in said road and W. D. Reynolds and H. W. Byington having filed a bond in the sum of $100, conditioned that if the proposed change should not be made the obligors would pay all expenses not exceeding $100, and whereas the viewers have reported adversely to making the change, on motion of Supervisor Coulter the clerk was directed to proceed and collect the $100 from the said bondsmen.

The following road overseers' reports were accepted and their bills allowed. P. L. McGill, Sonoma District, $720.49; William O'Farrell, Ocean District, $317.30. The road overseer of Santa Rosa road district was directed to make such repairs as are deemed necessary on the following roads upon motion of Supervisor Coulter: The Bennett Valley and Petaluma road from Walter Philips' to Graham's Canyon, road in Bennett Valley from Talbot's to Glen Ellen.

At 12 o'clock a recess was taken until 1 P. M.

Teachers' Institute.

The Teachers' Institute convened at Cloverdale last Monday afternoon. The first days session was taken up principally with addresses delivered by Prof. Petray, Rev. W. L. Jones, Prof. Hutton and Mrs. F. McG. Martin, County Superintendent of Schools and an oration by James R. Watson, on "The Teacher's Duty to His Country." Mrs. Martin in the course of her remarks introduced some valuable statestics regarding Sonoma county schools. She stated that there has been an increase of over $25,000 since 1880, in the amount of money expended for public schools, aggregating $118,918 for the fiscal years 1886-87. The average salary paid to male teachers is now $74; to female, $53. At the conclusion of the Superintendent's address the following Committees were appointed: On daily program—C. E. Hutton, O. W. Grove, Mrs. H. A. Raymond, Misses Rainey and Mary Stone.

On Preparation of School Exhibit for the National Association—C. E. Hutton, F. A. Cromwell, W. R. Carpenter, Mrs. M. A. Wymore, Mrs. M. Pickett, Misses Alice Munday, Kate B. Bowers and May Geary.

On Resolutions—H. R. Bull, C. E. Gamble, Misses Augusta Pierce, J.D. Crawford and Ruth McClellen.

On Introduction—I. S. Crawford, Mrs. E. B. Wilcocks, Misses Mary Waite, Mary Miner, Maggie Youth, Minnie I. Reed, Edee Holton, Katie Singley, Bertha Camm, Anna Hendrickson, Juanita Henley, Ella Robberson, Mattie Shattuck; Messrs. Paul Bowman and H. I. Gallagher.

Music—O. W. Grove, P. S. Larabee; Miss F. Hunzeker.

THE CLEAR LAKE ROAD.

The Terms of the Mortgage by Which $1,500,000 Has Been Secured.

There was filed in the Recorder's office yesterday a mortgage by the officers of the San Francisco, Clear Lake and Humboldt Railroad Company by which all the property, rights-of-way and privileges of that corporation are mortgaged to the Metropolitan Trust Company of New York to secure the payment of the first mortgage bonds, amounting to $1,500,000. The mortgage is accompanied by a copy of an agreement between the two corporations, which sets forth the terms upon which the Metropolitan Trust Company proposes to advance the money. The issue is to consist of 1,500 bonds of the par value of $1,000 each. They are to run for thirty-one years and bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent, being payable in gold coin. A form of the bond, with the monthly $30 interest coupon attached, accompanies the agreement. The mortgage was executed on December 10, 1887, and the bonds fall due on January 1, 1918. According to the terms of the agreement John McNulta of Bloomington, Ill., is appointed to act as fiscal agent for the Metropolitan Trust Company and on him devolves the duty of paying the coin to the San Francisco, Clear Lake and Humboldt Company, as the road is constructed, and the locomotives and rolling stock put in. Fifteen bonds are to be issued for every mile of road built. The right-of-way and road mortgaged commences in Napa City and extends north through Lake county to Lower Lake at the foot of Clear Lake, upon which the company will operate steamers and barges.

After January 1, 1895, the directors of the railroad company are required to set aside 7 per cent of the net earnings of the company, to constitute a Sinking fund for the bonds when they mature. This Sinking fund may be invested in such securities as they may deem proper.

The agreement is signed by Thomas Hillhouse, President, and Charles Jessup, Secretary of the Metropolitan Trust Company, and W. H. H. Hart, President, and J. F. Fassett, Secretary of the San Francisco, Clear Lake and Humboldt Railroad Company. The mortgage was recorded in Lake county on March 29th, and in Napa county on March 31st.—San Francisco Bulletin.

The Devil Fish Described by Hugo

Is not a more tenacious monster than malaria, whether it takes the form of chills and fever, bilious remittent, ague cake or dumb vague. Like the octopus of the story it claps the victim in its tentacules, and folds him closer and closer in a horrible embrace. Attacked with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, however, it gradually relaxes its tremendous grip, finally abandons it, and the quondam sufferer, liberated at last, rejoices in the sense of new born freedom, engendered by the restoration of complete health. Dyspepsia, too, and constipation, those old and remorseless enemies of the human family, give ground, and are finally driven from the field by this Napoleon of remedies, the greatest, the purest in the family pharmacopœia. Rheumatism succumbs to it, so do kidney troubles. The nerves, when overstrained, regain quietude and vigor by its aid, and the ability to rest tranquilly and eat with zest are increased by it. Resort to it in time and avoid unnecessary suffering.

Consumption Surely Cured.

How Men Die.

If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many however have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened Lungs will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life. Upon the first symptoms of a Cough, Cold or any trouble of the Throat or Lungs' give that old and well-known remedy, Boschee's German Syrup' a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home."

Master Guy Weems celebrated his eighth birthday on last Saturday afternoon at the residence of his parents, Broadway street. Early in the afternoon a merry troop of little folks assembled in the parlors. After listening to several selections on the piano by Miss Addie Sydnor the playing of games, songs and recitations were indulged in until refreshments were announced, which all were very willing to partake of. After eating all the good things set before them the children repaired to the parlors and enjoyed themselves in true childish fashion. The following little ones were present: Guy Weems, Frank Weems, Clarence Wikoff, Bertie Walker, Eddie Estes, Friend McHarvey, Addie Sydner, Margaret Wikoff, May McDonell, Emma Estes, Clara Tivnen, Ella Estes, Celia Granice, Julie Granice.

Who is Your Best Friend

Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right,—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

CONSTIPATION

IS called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being excreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite,
Sick Headache,
Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a wineglassful and afterwards reduced the dose to a teaspoonful, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took two bottles. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it, it having cured me."—Geo. W. SIMS, Ass't Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1888.

Early Inhabitants of America.

A glance at the geologies of the present day shows that workers in this department of natural history are enabled to map out the continents and seas of ages ago almost as correctly as they can those of today—so distinctly are the old shores and landmarks outlined. Today we ride in cars across the American continents yet not so long ago, geologically speaking, a vast inland sea extended northwest from the Gulf of Mexico—finding its boundaries, in all probability, on some shore now submerged beneath the waters of the Pacific.

This was during what is known as the age of chalk, or the cretaceous period—and millions of years ago, if our geological estimates are correct. The question as to whether man existed then is an interesting one. Evidence of human life has not been found; yet there were vast areas of land, with animals and plants of great variety, and as there was no physical barrier to human existence, in the opinion of many the cretaceous continents and islands were populated by man.

Knowing the actual conditions of life at this early time, the strange animals that lived during it, it is a comparatively easy matter to understand or appreciate the daily life of our ancestors. It is evident that they were much more primitive than even the bushman of today, and undoubtedly were what we would term wild men, living in rocks and caves as the lower animals do. They were essentially hunters and fishermen, depending upon game for their sustenance. The small continent of America at this time had in all probability low, marshy coasts, and the great ocean or gulf, whose coast line can be traced from Arkansas to near Fort Riley, on the Kansas river, up to Minnesota to Canada, near the head of Lake Superior, was a vast shallow sea. On its borders we may imagine cliffs of sandstone worn out into caves and quarries, in which these early fishermen made their homes.—Philadelphia Times.

Sending Unsealed Letters.

The "point of etiquette," in regard to not sealing letters sent by the hand of a friend, is to be considered, undoubtedly, as settled by the usage of polite society. And yet there are two sides to the question. To intrust to a friend an unsealed letter to a third person is a compliment to the friend; but why should it be thought necessarily uncomplimentary if the letter be sealed? On the other hand, the sealing of a letter may be deemed always advisable, for one good reason at least. The contents of an unsealed letter are never safe. They are safe so far as the honorable friend is concerned, but not safe in any other sense. They may be lost from the envelope easily and innocently. They may be abstracted and read by the servant to whom the note is delivered at the door, or by any prying individual who may find the missive lying on the hall table and awaiting the owner's arrival. Especially unsafe is it to place in an unsealed package articles of large money value. Would any sane man send a $50 bill in an unsealed envelope by the hand of a friend or anybody whomsoever? The friend himself, if he knew the nature of the inclosure, would be very apt to protest against this sacrifice of common sense at the shrine of etiquette.—"C. S. E." in New York Commercial Advertiser.

How to Photograph Birds.

Dr. R. W. Shufeldt suggests to ornithologists that they may find portable photographic outfits of advantage in their studies. He finds that by the use of the instantaneous shutter birds may be photographed in nearly all of their positions. "Out here on the prairies we will often find an old stump or stalk upon which a dozen or fifteen species of birds will alight during seven or eight hours on almost any day suitable to use the camera upon them. Now, all we have to do is to properly set our instrument near this point, conceal it in such a way as not to alarm the birds, focus it sharply upon the perch where they alight, place on your 'snap shutter,' and fix it with a string, and then remove yourself far enough away to pull it when you have a subject sitting to your liking. Birds that you have wounded but slightly may be photographed under the most favorable circumstances; they may also be taken sitting on their nests; in actual flight, however swift; in pursuit of their food; in leading about their young; indeed, the list is almost an endless one. Rookeries also offer admirable subjects, and a splendid field is open at those wonderful resorts of water birds in such places as the Bahamas or the Alaskan coast."—Chicago News.

A Story of Meissonier.

The enterprising manager of a Paris theatre once called upon Meissonier and asked him to paint a drop scene for a certain theatre and name his own terms. "You have seen my pictures, then?" asked Meissonier. "Oh, yes," exclaimed the manager; "but it is your name—your name I want; it will draw crowds to my theatre." "And how large is it you wish this curtain to be?" inquired the artist. "Ah, well, we will say fifteen meters by eighteen." Meissonier took up a pencil and proceeded to make a calculation. At last he looked up and said with imperturbable gravity: "I have calculated and find that my pictures are valued at 80,000 francs per meter. Your curtain, therefore, will cost you just 21,600,000 francs. But that is not all. It takes me twelve months to paint twenty-five centimeters of canvas. It will, therefore, take me just 100 years to finish your curtain. You should have come to me earlier, monsieur; I am too old for the undertaking now. Good morning."—Art Amateur.

An "Anti-Fat" Treatment.
